

Radio station K-LOVE serves me in a spiritual and uplifting, positive manner. I do not need some other non spiritual programming, as I can already accomplish that on another station. There are plenty of "secular philosophies" already on radio, the local community doesn't need more. Our community needs more Christian broadcasting, humanistic beliefs lead us down the "road to moral decay" and accomplish little but temporary satisfaction and true peace within our soul.